WHEREAS, Tami put together a plan that allowed the YMCA to swap land with the Board of Education of District 202 and as a part of this plan, the schools and the Y worked out an agreement that provided for continued before and after school programming in the schools; it created a campus concept where the new Y sits adjacent to existing schools and share facilities, land, and services; and it set down guidelines for facility use with both the schools and the park district; and

1 WHEREAS, Tami worked with the City of Joliet and Councilman
2 Joe Shetina on a grant for $15,000 that allowed the YMCA to do
3 a community and feasibility study; she worked with Illinois 4 State Representative Tom Cross on a $250,000 State grant for 5 land; she worked with past Plainfield Mayor Dick Rock as well
6 as current Mayor Jim Waldorf to ensure that the needs of the 7 village were being met; and she worked with Superintendent John 8 Harper of District 202 to ensure the long term needs of 9 children and families in the after school program would be met; 10 and

11 WHEREAS, In addition, she worked with the Plainfield Park
12 District on a green space agreement that would ensure shared
13 use of community, YMCA, and district land for years to come;
14 she also worked with Provena St. Joseph Medical Center and 15 current CFO Jeff Brickman to partner by providing space for 16 Provena to run physical therapy and rehabilitation services in 17 the new facility; and

18 WHEREAS, In 2006 the C.W. Avery Family YMCA opened its 19 doors to the community; Tami also overlooked the renaming of 20 the YMCA branch on Briggs Street in Joliet to the Arthur and 21 Vera Smith Family YMCA; and

22 WHEREAS, In 2006 Tami was awarded the Association of YMCA
23 Professionals "Director of the Year" award for her

1 achievements; she was chosen by the Women's Bar Association as 2 a "Woman with Vision" in 2003; she was interviewed by CNN
3 Newsmakers in 2007 for her work in Will County; and she will be 4 honored by the Greater Joliet YMCA in August of 2009 for her 25
5 years of dedicated service to the people of the Greater Joliet
6 area; therefore, be it

7 RESOLVED, BY THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES OF THE 8 NINETY-SIXTH GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF THE STATE OF ILLINOIS, that we 9 congratulate and honor Tami Sender for her hard work and 10 dedication to the people of Joliet, Will County, and the 11 surrounding areas through her work with the YMCA; and be it
12 further

13 RESOLVED, That a suitable copy of this resolution be 14 presented to Tami Sender as a symbol of our sincere respect.
